

a new music enrichment class has arrived at High Hopes!
“do re play” will be a fun, creative, sing-a-long session, in place of our previous music class, with a curriculum designed specifically for High Hopes’ inclusive environment!

what: instruments, songs, movement, self-expression, social skills, academic concepts, and MORE!

when: classes offered Tuesday afternoons and Wednesday mornings. (as enrollment increases, more classes will become available) who: Heather Thomas is a music therapist, with a B.M. in Music Therapy from The University of Alabama. Heather believes that music is a powerful tool in the teaching and growing of children. We are excited to have Heather’s talents and know she will help our students develop positive and well-rounded learning techniques.

why: studies show that music increases spatial-temporal reasoning, along with providing a fun, energized learning environment. Music increases attention, improves memory, enhances imagination and facilitates multisensory learning!

cost: sign up now for an introductory special: First 2 months at $25/ea regular price: $30 a month. Monthly price will be applied to Tuition Express.
